

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY

CHELAN/DOUGLAS/OKANOGAN COUNTY EXTENSION

Washington State University Extension and the Grant County Health District are working together to provide the ServSafe certification for restaurant managers, cooks and anyone who has responsibility for food preparation and food safety. This would include casinos, day cares, senior centers, food counters, hospitals, restaurants or correction facilities.

Date: Thursday, February 11, 2010
Location: Moses Lake Fire Department
701 E Third Ave.
Moses Lake
Time: 8:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. (includes testing)

ServSafe is a nationally recognized comprehensive food safety training and certification program for anyone involved in the food service industry. The training includes the 2005 FDA Food Code and the 2007 supplement to the Food Code. The latest updates in food safety and best practices used in the industry to implement critical food safety procedures are taught. It is the highest standard in food safety training and certification to help managers keep food safe and protect the public from foodborne illness.

The cost for this course is $130 and includes the textbook and test. Each participant needs his/her own textbook. Pre-study is highly recommended. Upon receipt of registration money the textbook will be mailed to you. Successful completion of the course includes a ServSafe certificate for 5 years.

Please fill out the registration form below and mail it to WSU Extension with your payment. Registration must be received by February 1 to assure a textbook. Class is limited to 25 people.

If you have any questions about the class, please contact me at 509-745-8531.

Sincerely,
